Kemira Business Partner Code of Conduct

We are committed to conducting business ethically and sustainably

At Kemira, our vision is to be the first choice in chemistry for water-intensive industries. This requires that we conduct our business efficiently, safely and responsibly, always adhering to the highest standards of integrity, legal compliance and ethical conduct. We believe that how we do things is even more important than what we do.

We expect the same from our Business Partners

We deal only with Business Partners (e.g. suppliers, consultants, advisers, distributors and agents) who conduct their business ethically and responsibly.
